Insists That Stratton Told Him He Had Consulted With Governor.

Reply to the published statements of Samuel Cohen and F. Gerald Strat-ton, directors of the State Peniten-tiary, was given out yesterday by Dr. Charles V. Carrington, the sur, who was defeated for re-election. who was deteated for re-election. Dr. Carrington produces the evidence which he thinks substantiates his statements previously made, and which brought forth such emphatic denials from Mr. Cohen and Mr. Stratton.

An interesting point is the statement that the friend of Dr. Carrington to whom Mr. Cohen was said to have

Dr. Carrington argues that it is worth nothing, because "Mr. Stratton is con-fronted with the disagreeable neces-

In my first communication I charged that Mr. Cohen was the unwavering friend of the Davis Boot and Shoe that Mr. Cohen was the unwavering friend of the Davis Boot and Shoe Company upon the penitentiary board; that the Davis Boot and Shoe Company were anxious to have me removed as surgeon; that counsel for the company admitted to me that the company had been making a fight on me, but that they had directed the manager of the shoe company to 'phone Cohen and call the fight off, and that on the next day Cohen promised one or more friends of mine that he would support me.

All of this Mr. Cohen denies, This is to be expected. A former member will be used if necessary, is authority for the statement that in matters touching the interests of the Davis P. Boot and Shoe Company Mr. Cohen was like a hen with one chicken in his related to the day in the company of the Governor, in a card to one of the afternoon papers, states that I called on him and requested him to see Mr. Bradley opposed to me.

Mr. Owen is mistaken in stating that I asked him to see Mr. Bradley. I did not ask him to see Mr. Bradley. I did ask him to see Mr. Bradley upon the told me was one of his best friends. If he spoke to Mr. Bradley upon the subject it was not at my request.

In my first statement I said that I had been informed that Mr. Owen was largely instrumental in securing the vote of Mr. Bradley for the nephew of the Governor. My authority for this statement is a near connection of Mr. Owen, whose name is at his disposal, who told me that if I could call off Ben Owen I could secure the vote of both Scherer and Bradley.

was like a hen with one chicken in his lender watchfulness and care.

I cannot speak on this subject from personal knowledge, because I never attended the meetings of the board unless, specially invited or unless the needs of my department required it.

Call Of Figut.

On the night of September 7, at Murphy's Hotel, Mr. H. G. Buchanan, of counsel for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, told me that he had called up Mr. Hutcheson, the manager of the shoe company, and had told him to be meeting and the state of the next day Mr. Cohen would support me. On September 12 Mr. W. D. Cardwell, of counsel for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, 'phoned Senator Swanson in Chattam that Air. Cohen would support me, and this has been substantiated by both senator Swanson and Mr. Cardwell.

Whether Messrs. Lardwell and Buchanan, of counsel for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, 'phoned Senator Swanson and Mr. Cardwell.

Whether Messrs. Lardwell and Buchanan, of counsel for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, 'phoned Senator Swanson and Mr. Cardwell.

Whether Messrs. Cardwell and Buchanan, of counsel for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, had the personal authority of Mr. Cohen to pledge me his support is immaterial—in fact, if the had not authorized them to make such a statement it emphasizes the company as much "their man" that they could assure me and my friends of his vote without consulting him.

Mr. Cardwell Transport of the surgeon:

Talk with Stratton.

I chard Rardwell Stratton said to me before the election of the surgeon:

Talk with Stratton.

I charded that Mr. Stratton said to me before the election of the surgeon:

"Doctor I want all of the light noss."

It is a matter of comparative indifference to the general public whether ference to the general public whether for the same of this conversation, but the fact whether Governor Mann did use his influence with the board to secure, the election of his nephew is a matter of vHal interest. I reiterate that Mr. Stratton told me on that occasion that he had discussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he discussed the matter with any member of the board. Mr. Stratton is therefore confronted with the disagneeable necessity of denying his statement to me or of flatly contradicting Governor Mann.

All of Mr. Stratton's interests—if he is influenced solely by them rather than by love of truth—require him to deny his statement to me and to support the statement of Governor Mann.

About sixteen years ago I was pres ent on Thanksgiving Day at a foot-ball match at the Broad Street Park sitting next to Rev. Herbert Hope, of Petersburg, when a row commenced immediately beneath us between three immediately beneath us between three or four Richmond men on one side and Mr. Stratton and a nephew of Governor Mann (not Dr. Herbert Mann) on the other. Mr. Hope appealed to me to interfere, stating that he knew the parents of the two Petersburg boys, and was afraid they might be seriously injured. I had never seen either Mr. Stratton or Mr. Mann before, but at once sprang to the ground, and, after considerable difficulty, succeeded in keeping the Richmond men from doing the Petersburg boys any injury. I took charge of Mr. Stratton and Mr. Mann, and carried them to the depot in a carriage, and saw them safely on the train for Petersburg.

I never saw Mr. Stratton again until

Mr. Scherer says that he does not think I have stated anything that was worth answering. In speaking of him in my original statement I said: "Of course, he was tied h. nd ind foot to Governor Mann. Appointed March 1, 1911, and to be reappointed March 1, 1912, can there be any doubt that he was personally piedged?" In addition to this I now state that Mr. Scherer. was personally pledged." In addition to this I now state that Mr. Scherer told a high official of the Chesapeake and Ohio Rallway Company that he was personally pledged to the Governor to vote for his nephew.

Says Owen Is Mistaken.

Mr. Ben P. Owen, the private secretary of the Governor, in a card to Mr. Stratton, in his reply, admits that the conversation took place, admits that the said he wanted all of the light possible on the subject, but denies that he said that he was "kind of ted to the Manns," and also denies that he said that he was "kind of ted to the Manns," and also denies that he said that he was "kind of ted the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she subject with Governor Mann.

What is his denial worth? In the next breath he says that he told me that he had been committed to Dr. Mann for six months—I deny that he made this statement—but the statement now made proves conclusively that he was "kind of tied to the Manns." His denial of the statement that he had previously discussed the subject with Governor Mann raises a clear-cut question of veracity between us. I accept the issue.

Governor's Position.

It is a matter of comparative indifference to the general public whether Mr. Stratton or I afe correct in our respective statement of this conversation, but the fact whether Governor Mann did use his influence with the board to secure, the election of his nephew is a matter of vala interest. I reiterate that Mr. Stratton told me on that occasion that he had discussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter of vala interest. I reiterate that Mr. Stratton told me on that occasion that he had discussed the matter with Governor Mann has denied that he d'scussed the matter of vala interest. I reiterate that Mr. Stratton told me on coming of her little one; to avoid as taken refuge in his tobacco barn, and

Mr. Stratton also denies that he is under any obligations to me or that he has ever gratefully referred to such a subject to me or any one else, and that my statement to this effect is wilful, malicious and false.

I owe the public an apology for suggesting that Mr. Stratton could ever be grateful for any act of Kindness.
